Congratulations! You've found the best painting company in South Puget Sound. Hi, I'm Dustin Wilson, owner of Flying Colors Painting. When you talk to our customers, don't be surprised when they talk about our higher standards. Higher standards are more than our motto. They're our mission. So what do higher standards mean to us? Higher standards are about reliability. They're about quality, endurance and trust. We know that when you invite our painters into your home, that takes a great deal of trust on your part. We respect that trust by requiring every employee to take a background check and random periodic drug tests. You can rest assured our painters will treat you with the respect and courtesy you deserve. You won't find this level of professionalism with any other local painting company.

With over 25 year's experience, we know paint. Whether you need interior or exterior, we know how to get the job done the right way, on the first try. The quality of service ensures a beautiful, lasting paint job. And with a job that lasts, that's one less thing for you to worry about.

So how are we different from the rest? We're not only strict about our work ethic and who we hire, but we also offer the best warranties in the business. We understand your concerns. If, for any reason you're not satisfied with the job we do, we'll work until you're fully satisfied. With our warranties, you can't lose.

If you've been putting off painting your house, there's no better time to get it done than now. Give us a call today to find out about our warranties and ask how we can best provide service for you. Come see the professional painting difference.
